Using the Web: What's Your Source?

1. Choose the topic that you want to research. Write your choice here.

---

2. Here are three useful search sites.

Yahooligans

<http://www.yahooligans.com>

KidsClick!

<http://sunsite.berkeley.edu/KidsClick!/>

Google Directory – Kids and Teens

http://directory.google.com/Top/Kids\_and\_Teens/

Choose one of them and type its address at the top of your computer screen. Then press Enter or Return. Write the name of that search site here.

---

3. Choose a key word or words to use for your search. Write the key words here.

---

4. Type a key word into the blank next to the word "Search" on the search site. Your computer screen will now show a list of sites and descriptions that match your key words. Read the descriptions and choose three sites that seem like they will be useful for your research. For each site, answer the following questions.

What is today's date? This is important because Web sites can change over time.

What is the name of the site?

---

What is the address (URL) of the site? URLs begin with http or www.

---

Can you tell who created the site?

---

What is the purpose of the site?

---

What is one fact that you learned from this site?

---

Would you recommend this site to someone else, and why or why not?
